Dear Sir,

Please accept of my best thanks for your kind reply to

My dear Sir,

My name is doubtless known to you in connexion with this Society, of which I was President from its foundation until the 30th Nov last, when my term of Office expired under the Rules. I am now "Director" and as keen as I ever was to promote the interests of the Society. I should

Therefore be much obliged to you if you would send me the names & addresses of any desirable candidates for membership & whom I would then send copies of our new prospectus, similar to that sent herewith.

I want America to be thoroughly well represented, as ~~your~~ our history is young & a comparatively recent date.

I also enclose a reprint of Mr Lawrence's paper

"A remarkable gold coin of Henry VIII".

I am the owner of the coin described, but, as it is not within my own series (which ends with the 12th century) I should like to dispose of it for an adequate sum so as I provide funds for an important sale of Anglo-Saxon coins in May next.

Does the piece appeal to you. either for your own cabinet or that of your Society?

Yours very truly

J. Andrew, Esq.,

Secretary, British Nuxiatic Society,

My dear Sir:-

For the past two years members of the British Nuxiatic Society residing in this country have been considerably troubled by the Customs authorities assessing duty on the year book of the Society. This book, going as it does to the members of the Society and not simply imported for sale, according to law should not be subject to duty. The members are put in a position to either pay the duty without protest or else go to considerable trouble to have it resisted.

I was invited to call at the Customs authorities regarding this a few days ago, and was informed that if you could have the following conditions to the same effect put upon the program of this year, when sent to the members in this country, it would probably save the members the trouble and delay of arranging for their free delivery: THIS BOOK IS INTENDED TO BE SENT FREE BY POST BY REGISTERED MAIL. The published copies of the American Journal of Numismatics is practically the same as that of the British Numismatic Journal so that the benefit would be all intense and permanent equivalent.

As I therefore ask that your Society consider enrollment as a member of this Organization in the same manner that our Society has been enrolled as a member of the British Numismatic Society.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of November 3rd, I beg to advise that under date of September 2nd we received from Mr. Morrison, the President of your Society, letter accepting the proposal of The American Numismatic Society that our two organizations exchange membership in consideration of the fact that their respective publications have practically the same value. He stated at that time that, owing to the illness of your Secretary, a reply had been delayed, and I presume the personal communication which he sent me cannot have been brought to your attention before your letter of the 3rd was sent to me. If you will mention this matter to your President, he will confirm my statement of the matter. The arrangement, as was pointed out at the time it was made, obviates the sending out of the same amount by each Society each year.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of Mr. J. Mr. Saltus provided the funds which made it possible for our Society to present the gold medal, and he made it as a stipulation when the gift was tendered that a single copy in a metal not used for any other specimens should be struck for presentation to The British Numismatic Society.

It gives me great pleasure to be instrumental in transmitting this gift, and with assurances of my cordial regard, I beg that you will believe me,

Dear Sir/

I have delayed this letter so that I could enclose the printed and formal report of the Proceedings of this Society at the Meeting at which the presentation of the American Numismatic Society was exhibited and your accompanying letter read. I was desirous to convey to your Society, through you - and to our honoured Vice President, Mr. Saltus, as the moving spirit in the matter - an assurance of the great pleasure this thoughtful and kind present has given us. Not because of the beauty, and rarity of the unique example and facts which we appreciate without need of comment - but because of the friendship which we have enjoyed, and reciprocated, with your Society - and with Mr Saltus for so many years, and of which this is a token.

Sir,

As Honorary Librarian of the British Numismatic Society I have to thank you for the copy of the recent edition of Numismatic Notes and Monographs.

Incidentally, I should mention that the British Numismatic Society has removed from 13 Bedford Square to 1 Upper Montague Street, Bloomsbury, W.C. and perhaps you would kindly arrange to send any further publications to the Honorary Librarian, British Numismatic Society, at that address.

Yours very faithfully

H. A. Parsons

The Secretary,
American Numismatic Society,

W. J. Andrew, Esq., F. S. A.,

Secretary, The British Numismatic Society.

Sir:-

On behalf of Mr. J. Sanford Saltus, President of the British Numismatic Society, and Honorary Governor of The American Numismatic Society, I have the honor to transmit as a gift to your Society a copy in copper of the medal commemorating the visit to the United States of Field Marshal Foch. Through Mr. Saltus' express stipulation, this is the only copy struck in this metal.

May I avail myself of this opportunity to express the hope that the cordial relations which have marked the intercourse between our respective Societies may always continue.

Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) Sydney P. Noe,

Secretary.

THE BRITISH NUMISMATIC SOCIETY.

Dear Mr. Noe

I have waited to reply to your courteous and welcome letter until I could enclose this printed report of the Meeting at which it was read. You will see that Mr Saltus's present was not only appreciated, but also, he was congratulated upon the medal itself as a work of art. The resolution of thanks, and of appreciation of the feelings so ably expressed in your letter between the American Society and this, was passed at both the Council and General Meetings unanimously.

In this relation I venture to call your attention to certain passages on page 2 and, particularly page 16, of the Proceedings, enclosed, at our last Anniversary Meeting, at which it was an honour to us to welcome Mr. Edward

T. Newell as representing the American Nativist Society; and a still greater pleasure to learn from him that he was authorized to vote at our ballot, on behalf of that Society. - an incident quite new and delightful in the close bond of fellowship between us.

Thanking you personally for your letter, I am ever sincerely,

W. J. Andrews
Secretary

THE BRITISH NUMISMATIC SOCIETY.

Dear Mr. Roe

I enclose you the printed report of our proceedings following the accidental death of our honoured American President, John Sanford Sallies.

Mr. Francis there voices the feelings of all of us and I can only add the wish that the time between your Society and ours may be welded again and as strong as ever in the future

Yours sincerely

W. J. Andrew

I trust that a communication I sent to another of our American Members was in time for his Society to be represented at the Funeral as expressed in the Resolution

W. J. Andrew, Esq.

Hon. Secretary & Editor

The British Numismatic Society

1 Upper Montagu St. Bloomsbury

London, W.C.1, England

Dear Mr. Andrew:

Your kind letter of July 14th, together with the Report of your Proceedings, came duly to hand and should have been acknowledged long before this.

The death of Mr. Saltus must have come as a terrific shock to all the members of your Society, as it did to our own. You cannot fail to have had knowledge of how much he appreciated the honour of being President of the British Numismatic Society, or the interest with which he was looking forward to the dinner your Society was preparing for him. It must have been a very trying occasion!

The communication to another of your American members, of which you write, was, I presume, received, as it is my understanding that your Society was represented at the funeral service. There was an earlier communication addressed to the Representatives of the Estate of J. Sanford Saltus which I forwarded to his solicitors; and if this is the one to which you refer, I am sure that it did reach the proper hands well in advance of the last Rites.

Your wish that the links between our respective Societies may be strengthened is heartily seconded here; and I trust that you will not fail to let us have the benefit of any suggestions that may occur to you which will be likely to bring about this condition.

I am referring your letter to our Council, which does not meet again until September. This merely serves as an acknowledgment in the meantime.

Sincerely yours,
